Much More Than Basketball: Extra Experiences

We want your participation in the tournament to be a comprehensive experience that extends far beyond the court. Therefore, we offer participating teams an exclusive range of training sessions at our facilities as well as excursion packages to complete their stay.

Pre & Post Tournament Training Sessions

Do you want to arrive early to help your team adapt, or extend your stay after the competition? We make available OSE's official training facility and services so you can schedule preparation or recovery sessions both in the days before and after the tournament.

Fan Accommodation

We want the whole family and fans to experience the tournament from the inside!

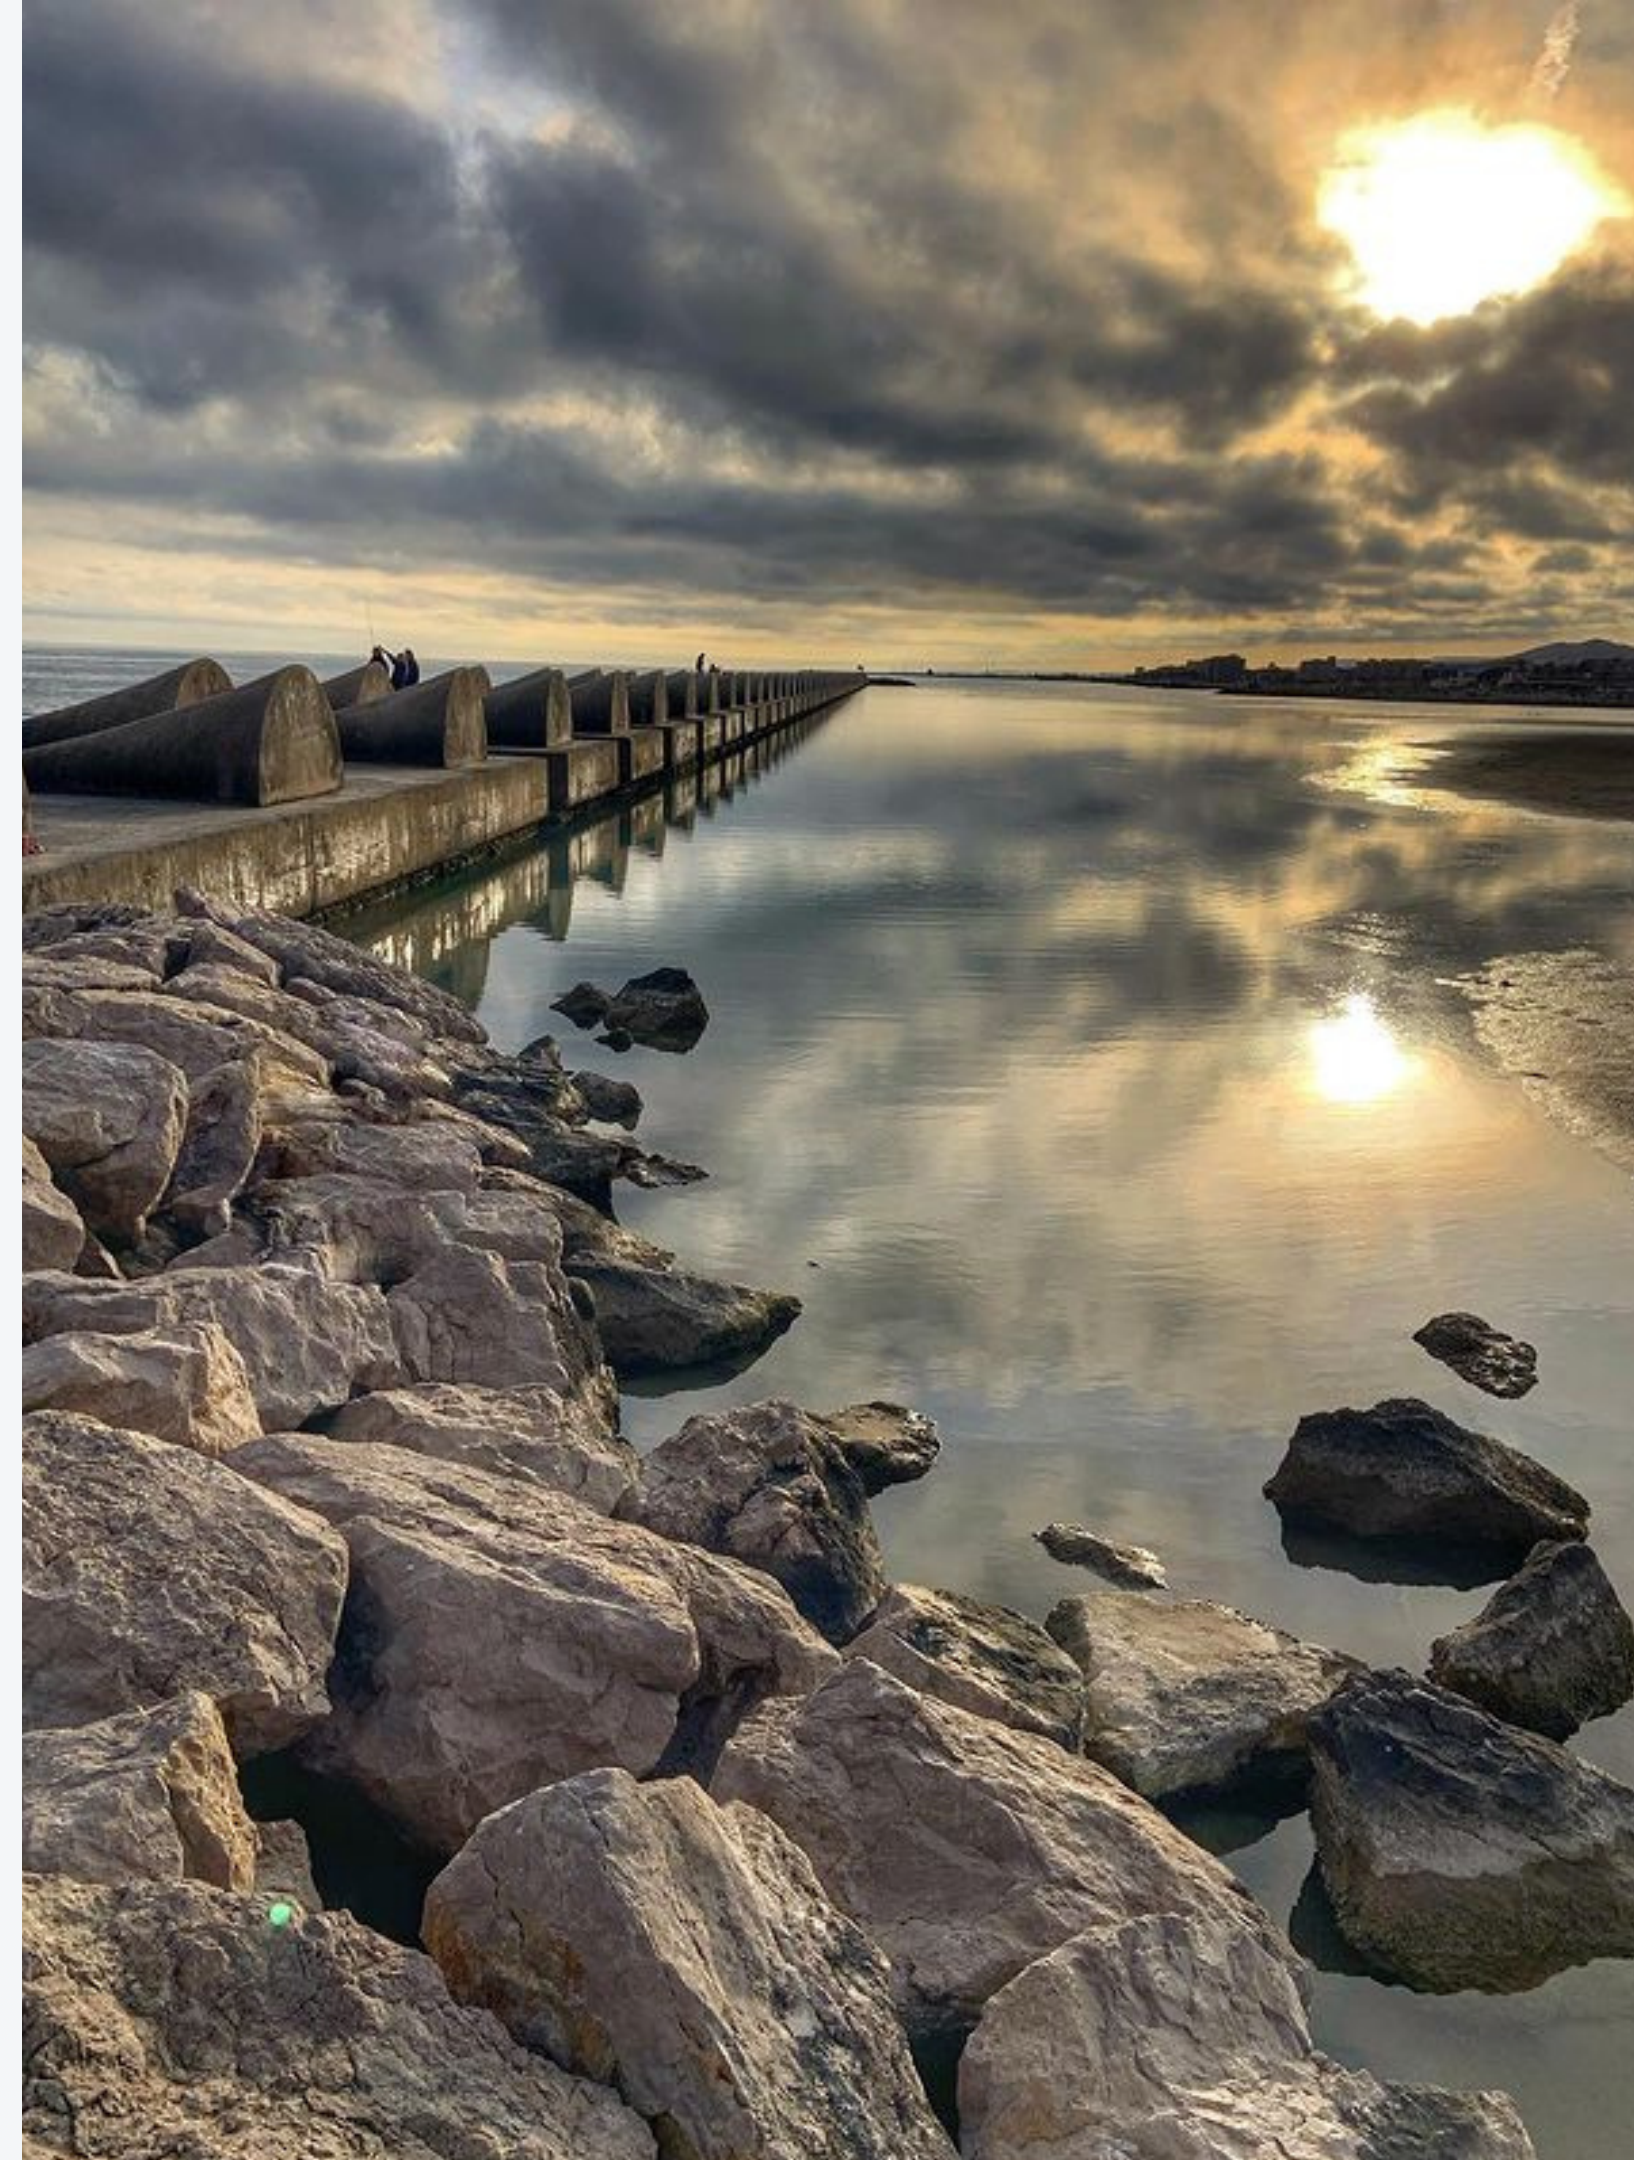

For all travelling companions, the organisation offers Exclusive Accommodation Packages.

These packages are designed to provide maximum comfort, special rates, and a convenient location close to the tournament's sports venues and leisure areas.

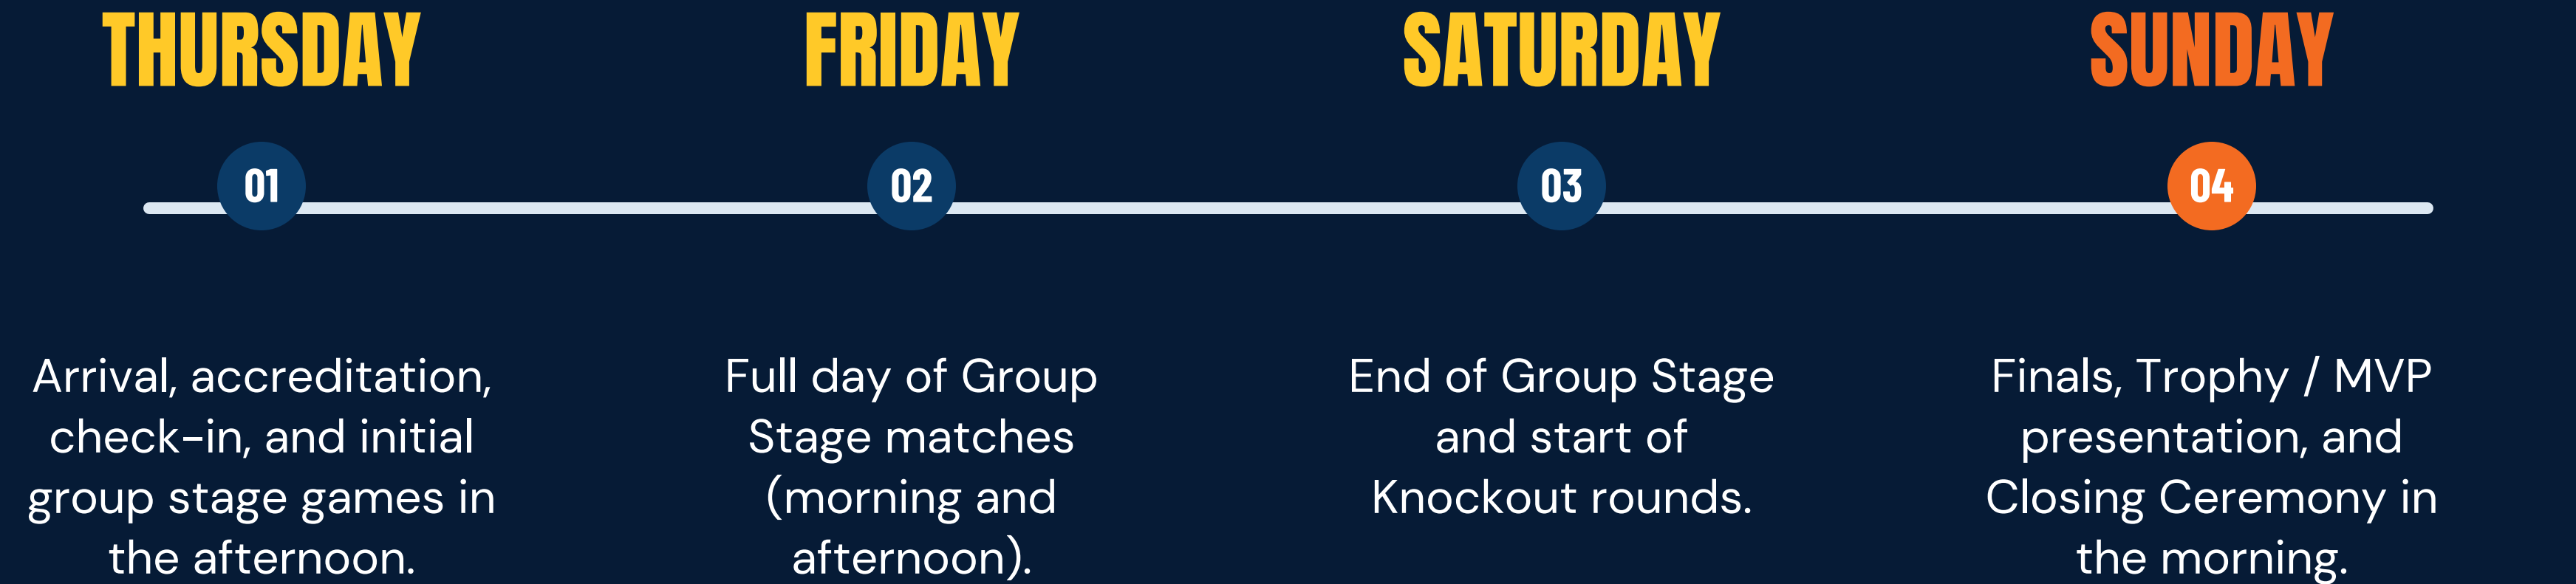

🏠 Due to high hotel demand during the tournament dates and to guarantee room availability for your group or family, bookings for these packages are managed directly and individually.

You can check availability, meal plan options (full board, half board, etc.), and make your reservation by contacting our team directly:
